Dear Friends,

We are looking forward to an exciting weekend at Temple Sinai. On November 2-3, we will have Dr. Arthur Green as our Beryl D. Cohon Lecturer and Scholar-In-Residence. Please mark these dates on your calendar. You don't want to miss the opportunity to hear this stimulating and provocative scholar.

On Friday November 2, Dr. Green will present the Cohon Memorial Lecture after Erev Shabbat Services starting at 7:30 PM.

Study with Dr. Green will continue on Saturday, November 3 at 9:00 AM and will include a light breakfast and short morning service. Further study will resume at 5:00 PM with a more informal format.

Dr. Green is recognized as one of the preeminent authorities on Jewish Spirituality, Mysticism and Hasidism. He is the Lown Professor of Jewish Thought at Brandeis University, and the Rector of the Rabbinical School program at Hebrew College. He is the author of several books; among his many eminent publications are: Ehyeh: A Kabbalah For Tomorrow; Jewish Spirituality, Vol. I & II; Seek My Face, Speak My Name: A Contemporary Jewish Theology; and A Guide to the Zohar.

We hope you can come to some or all of these sessions and support the Cohon Lecture Series and Scholar-In-Residence program with your presence.

We also hope that you can further support the Scholar-In-Residence program at Temple Sinai by sending a donation today to the Temple Office using the attached stub.

We look forward to your participation!
