K'TONTON

ONCE A MONTH ON SUNDAY MORNINGS:
10:00 AM – 12:00 PM

Come explore Judaism! This fun, interactive Jewish drop-off program for 3- & 4-year olds introduces young children to Jewish holidays and practices through arts & crafts, songs, stories and games. It's a great way to introduce your child to the joy of Jewish learning!

Our K'tonton program is held at Temple Sinai, Brookline. K'tonton is led by our wonderful teacher Karen, who has been teaching at Temple Sinai for over 20 years!

TOT SHABBAT

ONCE A MONTH ON SATURDAY MORNINGS:
9:30 AM – 10:00 AM

Families with young children ages 0-5 are warmly invited to join Rabbi Talia Stein in celebrating Shabbat together. Rabbi Stein will lead families through a tot-friendly Shabbat service followed by a light Kiddush nosh. Together we'll sing Shabbat songs and learn prayers, read stories and play!

Tot Shabbat is held at Sinai Brookline in our religious school building at 50 Sewall Ave. We gather on the second floor in our young children's classroom, Room 203.
