

For the fourteenth year, Temple Sinai is proud to host

The New England Jewish Poetry Festival & Tu B'Shevat celebration

Sunday, February 5, 2023 -- 2:00 p.m. – 5:00pm
Weintraub Community Room & by Zoom

Jewish Poetry Readings & Learning on Tu B'Shevat & Trees followed by a Tu B'Shevat Tasting Seder

Featured Poets:

Jenny Barber, Deb Leipziger & Gail Mazur

Brandeis Professor of Environmental Studies Dan Perlman will share observations about the science and wonder of trees and forests

Poets Jenny Barber, Deb Leipziger and Gail Mazur will be the featured poets at the fourteenth annual Jewish Poetry Festival on Sunday February 5 at 2:00 p.m. The focus this year will be on the Tu B'Shevat holiday. Our poets will present poems from the anthology "Tree Lines" and will be joined by Brandeis Professor of Environmental Studies Dan Perlman who will share scientific observations about trees. The event will be moderated by Larry Lowenthal.

Immediately following the Poetry Festival, from 4:00 to 5:00 p.m., there will be a Tu B'Shevat Tasting Seder with blessings, songs and traditional Tu B'Shevat food.

Supported in part by grants from Combined Jewish Philanthropies and the Massachusetts Cultural Council